

Timothy Q. Sloan
Vice President of Academics

Tim Sloan joined Ensign College in January 2020. He comes with senior-level, P&L experience in industries of consumer-packaged goods, education and non-profit international development. Tim enjoys mentoring young adults in business endeavors and start-ups.

He received his B.A. degree in History/English at Brigham Young University.

Tim grew up in Alberta, Canada, and California. He and his wife, Cindy, reared their five children in California, Washington and Utah. They have lived in Latin America and have a love for people of all cultures. His interests include running, fishing, camping and reading.

