

BUSINESS COLLEGE

Frequently Asked Questions

- Where can I learn more about LDS Business College's name change to Ensign College as well as other announced changes?
 - Answers can be found on our website: ldsbc.edu/ensign-transition
- How many employees work at LDS Business College?
 - There are close to 90 full-time staff and faculty employed at the College. Additionally, there are around 180 adjunct faculty employed.
- How many students are enrolled at LDS Business College?
 - There are approximately 2,200 students enrolled each year at LDS Business College. The College has classes during three semesters: Fall, Winter and Spring. The highest attended semesters occur in the Fall and Winter semesters. International students comprise approximately 35% of the student body.
- What do the terms Subject Matter Immersion and Deep Learning mean?
 - The idea of Subject Matter Immersion is to fully immerse and envelop students in a subject or discipline, where they take responsibility for what they learn, how they will learn, how they will demonstrate mastery of the subject and even how they will earn a final grade in the course. Deep Learning is the process of Subject Matter Immersion.
- When and where are LDS Business College devotionals held?
 - LDS Business College devotionals are primarily held at the Assembly Hall on Temple Square. On occasion, by request of Church Scheduling, devotionals are held in the Conference Center Little Theater. Devotionals are held Tuesdays from 11:15 a.m. to noon during the semester. Check the online calendar to view speakers and to confirm dates and locations.